

Songwriting After Seventy

What does one do when faced with staying home during a pandemic?

ALL study leader Gordon Terwilliger purchased a guitar, an amp, and a mic at the beginning of the pandemic and began writing songs!

Three years and seventeen songs later, he is still enjoying the process and the performance.

Please join us for an informal and entertaining afternoon of dialog and song with Gordon Terwilliger. There will be lots of music, and Gordon will share how his songs came about.

Mama T will be tending bar.
Light snacks will be provided by ALL.
Doors open at 3:45.
